COMMEDIA DELL'ARTE COURSE IN ROME AND VENICE

PROGRAMME

- The course focuses on reading, understanding, and interpreting scenes, characters and stories contained in major classical texts, reviving them from an environment some 500 years ago. This course allows students to see the many emotions connected to time, space, love, fame, war, power, justice, friendship, violence and jealousy that remain in our world today.
- Development of the Comedia Dell'Arte in Europe.
- Body expression exercises.
- We will be using instrument training exercises to develop students' own expressive body capabilities and voice.
- The Mask: between art and magic.
- Techniques of narration to make up and tell a story.
- The improvisational theater. Analysis and study of the scenes of theatrical texts of great authors linked to the tradition of the Commedia Dell'Arte: Moliere, Shakespeare, Goldoni, Beckett and others.
